"In respect to our own country and continent—of course the most important to us—the series of imperentation of this work is incomparably the most complete, exact numerous and finished of any examine. They are drawn with reful precessions and distinctness—every State of the Union by trelf, and clearly divided into counties, indicating every important town, read, railroad, river and canal, accompanied also with plans of most of the cities. They are strongly outlined, beautifully colored, and corrected up to the very latest as well as minutest changes. The maje of other governments on our continent are also numerous, and very full and complete; while those of foreign lands are apperior to any on this side the water. It has been a work of great labor and expense to prepare so complete and Athas, for which the reader will heartly fainh the author and publishers. As the world goes, no one can get along without an Atlas. The newspaper has become well-inquinitelligate without the light which a good map throws upon it. Names of far off lands and anknown cities and localities are constantly occurring, as if they were as familier as household words, which are more than Greek to the reader who has not the whole world before him. Every family ought to have one-almost as religiously as a Bible. The confort and light which a constitut access to a good athas would unjust, can hardly be estimated. And as none but good ones are tolerable, it is a great boon to the readers would be a constituted in design, as comprehensive in ecogy, and so heautiful and clear in execution, as the great work. In

of Spiritualism: To meet the demand of the times, and to furnish an earthly channel through which the important facts and communications emanating from the Spirit World may be collected together and presented for the important facts and communications emanating from the Spirit
World may be collected together and presented for the important facts and communications emanating from the Spiritual World may be collected together and presented for the immunical benefit of mankind, it is proposed to establish in the City of New-York a paper, to be entitled as above.

The Spiritual Telegraph will be devoted chiefly to an impartial presentation of the evidence of intercourse between the natural and spiritual worlds, and communications of general interest from spirits, through whatever medium and wherever they may have been given, and however diverse the sentiments may be in themselves, or from those held by mortals: to the end that all the facts in spiritual phenomena, and all the sentiments expressed by spirits, may be brought together in one sheet, and made accessible to every penson, energizing thought, progress and social intercourse, and exert their influence in harmonizing and elevating mankind.

We shall endeavor, in this paper, not to ealorce opinions upon any one, but simply to suggest inquiries, that all may investigate and think for themselves. We shall neighter prescribe limits for others, nor erect an arbitrary standard for ourselves. While it will strive to avoid all acrimonious disputations, it will tolerate the most unlimited freedom of thought, imposing no checks except when liberty is made the occasion of offense. It shall be free indeed—free as the utterances of the spirits—subject only to such restraints as are essential to the observance of those friendly relations and reciprocal duties, which, with the very current of our lives, must flow into the great Divine Order and Harmony of the Race.
